Grade: G3

Welbourn C of E Primary School is a small, friendly church school located between Lincoln and Grantham. We take great pride in being an inclusive school where all individuals feel a sense of belonging. Our school helps children and adults alike to be their BEST, 'Believe, Excite, Succeed, Together'.

'The sense of family is very evident. Pupils, staff, parents and carers, governors and members of the local community have strong, mutually supportive relationships' (SIAMS 2025)

Are you:
- Able to support learning within the classroom and deliver core interventions?
- Able to support SEND children on a 1:1 basis to achieve and help them develop their independence?
- Able to communicate with professional and families and follow school safeguarding procedures and policies?
- Passionate about inclusion and adaptive practices to ensure all children develop a sense of belonging?
- Self-motivated, flexible and can show strong initiative?
- Able to work well as part of a team?

Our school can offer you:
- An experienced, good-humoured, friendly and supportive staff team;
- A strong Christian ethos which is committed to supporting children and their families;
- A commitment to support your professional development; and
- Children who are caring, enthusiastic and passionate about their school community.

Further details and an application form can be obtained from the school office or email: enquiries@welbourn.lincs.sch.uk
