'Believe, Excite, Succeed, Together'

Are you looking for a local school place for your child?

Would you like your child to become part of our Welbourn family?

Welbourn Church of England Primary School warmly welcomes you to visit us!

We offer:

- * A small, safe, nurturing environment
- * Enthusiastic, inspirational teachers
- * An exciting, enriching curriculum
- * Stimulating classrooms and wonderful outdoor spaces
- * A range of extra curricular activities
- * Breakfast and after school club provision

We are:

- * Ofsted rated 'Good for Early Years provision' and 'personal development'
- * A rapidly improving school (Ofsted 2019)
- * An English hub partner school recognised for their development in Early reading and phonics
- * A Kyra Teaching School Alliance partner who is 'ambitious for all children'

Visit our school during the following times:

Open morning: Friday 23rd October 10—11.00am (Please contact the school office to confirm your attendance)

Virtual open morning and video call with the Headteacher: Wednesday 4th November 9.30am via Zoom

(contact school to request a link and password)

Alternatively, please contact our school office to make an appointment and have a personal tour of our school, using the details above. We will follow Covid 19 protocols and safety measures.

Follow us on twitter to see the children's learning experiences at: <https://twitter.com/WelbournPrimary>

Pupils feel highly valued, they enjoy their learning. They are respectful and behave well.

They children say their school is like a family.

Ofsted 2019

'Welbourn is a nurturing and inclusive Christian family where the wellbeing of all children and their families is of great importance'.
